

Name _____

Veterinarians: Caring for Our Furry Friends

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary role of veterinarians?
 - a) To teach animals tricks
 - b) To diagnose and treat illnesses and injuries in animals
 - c) To sell pet products
 - d) To design pet fashion

2. What is one aspect of preventive care provided by veterinarians?
 - a) Teaching animals to do tricks
 - b) Regular check-ups, vaccinations, and parasite control
 - c) Pet grooming
 - d) Animal transportation services

3. In what situations do veterinarians provide emergency care?
 - a) Only during regular business hours
 - b) Only for pets with insurance
 - c) In cases of accidents or sudden illnesses
 - d) Only for exotic animals

4. How do veterinarians contribute to public health?
 - a) By training animals to perform in circuses
 - b) By ensuring that animals are healthy and do not pose risks to humans through zoonotic diseases
 - c) By selling pet toys
 - d) By hosting pet fashion shows

5. What is one way veterinarians support animal welfare in their communities?
 - a) By teaching animals to dance
 - b) By advocating for responsible pet ownership
 - c) By offering pet grooming services
 - d) By organizing pet talent shows

