

Name _____

Paws & Protection: A Guide to Dog Vaccinations and Veterinary Care

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why are vaccinations important for dogs?
  - A) To protect them from diseases
  - B) To make them sleepy
  - C) To make them grow faster
  - D) To make them immune to fleas

2. When do puppies typically start receiving vaccinations?
  - A) 2-4 weeks of age
  - B) 1 year of age
  - C) 12-16 weeks of age
  - D) 6-8 weeks of age

3. How often do adult dogs need booster shots for vaccinations?
  - A) Every month
  - B) Annually or every three years
  - C) Every six months
  - D) Only once in their lifetime

4. What do veterinarians do during regular check-ups for dogs?
  - A) Check their temperature
  - B) Discuss their favorite toys
  - C) Conduct a physical exam and discuss preventive care
  - D) Give them a bath

5. Why is it important to stay proactive about your dog's veterinary care?
  - A) To save money
  - B) To catch health problems early
  - C) To avoid going to the veterinarian
  - D) To get free treats

