

Name _____

Veto Power!

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does a veto mean?
  - a) The president signs a bill into law
  - b) The Supreme Court cancels a law
  - c) Congress creates a new bill
  - d) The president rejects a bill passed by Congress

2. How can Congress override a veto?
  - a) The president must change their mind
  - b) The Supreme Court must approve the bill
  - c) Congress must get a two-thirds majority vote in both houses
  - d) The Vice President must sign the bill

3. Why did President Andrew Jackson veto the national bank?
  - a) He thought it gave too much power to wealthy people
  - b) He did not want people to have bank accounts
  - c) He wanted to create a new bank himself
  - d) He wanted Congress to decide instead

4. Which president used the most vetoes in history?
  - a) Abraham Lincoln
  - b) Franklin D. Roosevelt
  - c) Thomas Jefferson
  - d) George W. Bush

5. Why do presidents use vetoes?
  - a) To reject bills they believe are bad for the country
  - b) To cancel Supreme Court decisions
  - c) To control all parts of the government
  - d) To choose the next president

