

Name _____

Victorian Inequality

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does Scrooge care about most at the beginning of the story?
 - A. Helping others
 - B. His money
 - C. His family
 - D. Christmas spirit

2. Why does Scrooge refuse to give money to help the poor?
 - A. He believes the poor should work in prisons or workhouses
 - B. He does not trust the people asking for money
 - C. He thinks the poor do not need help
 - D. He plans to help them later

3. Who are Ignorance and Want?
 - A. Scrooge's family members
 - B. The children of Bob Cratchit
 - C. Symbols of society's problems
 - D. Workers at Scrooge's office

4. How does the Cratchit family show kindness despite being poor?
 - A. They give their food to strangers
 - B. They adopt more children
 - C. They share their money with Scrooge
 - D. They celebrate Christmas with love and gratitude

5. What lesson does Dickens want readers to learn from Scrooge's story?
 - A. Money is the key to happiness
 - B. Poor people cannot be trusted
 - C. Everyone has a responsibility to help those in need
 - D. Ignoring problems will make them go away

