

Name _____

Alice's Virtual Adventure

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Alice is described as "keen" because she is enthusiastic and eager about her coding skills and game creation. This tells us that she is passionate about what she does.
2. Answers may vary, but students could describe an adventure involving exploring a mysterious jungle, solving puzzles, or encountering magical creatures in Alice's virtual world.
3. Alice's friends and family might feel proud of her skills, impressed by her creativity, or interested in playing her game.
4. Hobbies and passions like Alice's are important because they bring joy, creativity, and skill development into a person's life. They allow individuals to express themselves and pursue what they love.

