

Name _____

Kids and Family Decisions: Should Their Voices Matter?

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on a time when you were allowed to have a say in a family decision. Describe the decision, your role, and the outcome. How did it make you feel?
2. Discuss potential challenges or drawbacks of involving kids in family decisions and propose solutions to address them.
3. Imagine a family where kids are not allowed to participate in decisions. Explain how this might affect family dynamics and relationships over time.
4. How can parents strike a balance between allowing kids to have a say in family decisions and making necessary parental choices?

