

Name _____

Voices United

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the poem?
 - A. The joy of a festival
 - B. The experience of a protest or social activism
 - C. The beauty of nature
 - D. The excitement of a soccer game

2. How does the poem describe the protest?
 - A. As a violent and chaotic event
 - B. As a peaceful rally for justice
 - C. As a celebration of art and culture
 - D. As a competition between groups

3. What are the protesters demanding in the poem?
 - A. They are demanding the right to vote
 - B. They are demanding justice, equality, and rights
 - C. They are demanding better weather
 - D. They are demanding faster transportation

4. What is described as being "high" in the poem?
 - A. The protesters' energy and spirits
 - B. The buildings in the city
 - C. The prices of goods
 - D. The mountains in the distance

5. How does the poem describe the world's reaction to the protest?
 - A. The world ignores the protest
 - B. The world watches and listens
 - C. The world criticizes and condemns
 - D. The world joins the protest

