

Name _____

Exploring the Concerns of Allowing Teenagers to Vote in Government Elections

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one concern mentioned in the passage about allowing teenagers to vote?
  - A) Increased political awareness
  - B) Potential generational conflicts
  - C) Enhanced decision-making skills
  - D) Decreased peer influence

2. What is a possible consequence of teenagers lacking life experience and knowledge in voting?
  - A) Informed decisions
  - B) Independent judgment
  - C) Uninformed voting
  - D) Reduced political interest

3. What external factors might influence teenagers in their voting decisions?
  - A) Family opinions
  - B) Political knowledge
  - C) Research skills
  - D) Independence

4. According to the passage, what challenge might arise in implementing teenage voting?
  - A) Increased political engagement
  - B) Identifying appropriate age for eligibility
  - C) Decreased generational conflicts
  - D) Simplified logistics

5. What is the potential consequence of politicians prioritizing issues appealing to younger voters?
  - A) Decreased generational conflicts
  - B) Enhanced political representation
  - C) Neglecting concerns of older generations
  - D) Improved political focus

