

Name _____

Exploring the Concerns of Allowing Teenagers to Vote in Government Elections

Short Answer

1. Why might teenagers lack the necessary knowledge and experience for informed voting?
2. How can peer pressure and family opinions influence teenagers' voting decisions, as mentioned in the passage?
3. What practical challenges are associated with implementing teenage voting?
4. What is the potential impact of teenagers being easily influenced by external factors in voting?
5. What might be the consequences of politicians focusing on issues appealing to younger voters, according to the passage?

