Unlocking the Ballot Box: Should the Voting Age Be Lowered to 16?

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary and should provide a clear stance and reasons for that stance.
2. Possible measures might include comprehensive civic education programs, voter information resources, and opportunities for young people to engage in political discussions and debates.
3. Responses may vary but should reflect personal opinions on the level of influence young people should have in shaping policies.
