

Name _____

Voyages of Discovery

Short Answer Key

1. The explorers set out to discover hidden treasures and ancient secrets. They are motivated by the thrill of adventure and the desire to unveil the mysteries of the world.
2. The explorers face challenges such as dangers in uncharted lands, dense jungles, and secrets hidden in nature. These obstacles test their courage and determination.
3. The explorers use tools like maps and compasses to navigate and find their way in unknown territories. These instruments help them avoid getting lost and assist in their quest for discovery.
4. The explorers gain knowledge about the wonders of the world, the resilience of nature, and the importance of courage and determination in the face of challenges.
5. By the end of the poem, the explorers are filled with awe and a sense of accomplishment, having unveiled some of the world's mysteries and discovered hidden treasures.

