

Name _____

The Amazing Walking Leaf

Short Answer Key

1. Walking leaves belong to the stick insect family.
2. They sway to mimic the movement of a leaf blowing in the wind.
3. Walking leaves can be found in Southeast Asia and Australia.
4. They eat leaves, which serve as both food and camouflage.
5. Walking leaves help scientists learn about adaptation and evolution.

