

Name _____

The Walking Leaf: A Master of Disguise and Relationships

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main purpose of a walking leaf insect's camouflage?
 - A. To attract other insects
 - B. To hide from predators
 - C. To help plants grow
 - D. To make their environment colorful

2. Which type of relationship do parasitic wasps have with walking leaf insects?
 - A. Mutualism
 - B. Commensalism
 - C. Parasitism
 - D. Cooperation

3. Where are walking leaf insects most commonly found?
 - A. Tropical regions
 - B. Deserts
 - C. Mountains
 - D. Urban areas

4. How do walking leaf insects interact with plants?
 - A. They destroy plants.
 - B. They have no relationship with plants.
 - C. They make plants grow faster.
 - D. They rely on plants for food and shelter.

5. What role do walking leaf insects play in the ecosystem?
 - A. They protect predators.
 - B. They help wasps reproduce.
 - C. They showcase the power of camouflage.
 - D. They harm the environment.

