

Name _____

The Melodies of the Wandering Minstrel

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think the minstrel chose to travel and gather stories through his music?
2. Can you imagine a story that the minstrel might have heard during his travels? What would it be about?
3. How do you think the minstrel's music and stories affected the people he met on his journey?
4. What lessons might the minstrel have learned from the stories he collected and shared with others?

