

Name _____

Ode to Adventure and Wanderlust

Short Answer Key

1. Wanderlust is described as whispering in the breeze, suggesting it's a quiet and enticing call to travel.
2. Backpacks and maps are essential tools for planning and navigating adventures overseas.
3. People gain understanding through exploring new cultures by experiencing different ways of life, traditions, and perspectives.
4. The phrase "our hearts full of zest" implies that the travelers are enthusiastic, eager, and passionate about their adventures.
5. The poem expresses the feeling of being "truly blessed" in travel's embrace by highlighting the sense of gratitude and fulfillment that comes from exploring the world.

