

Name _____

War and Rollers

Short Answer Key

1. Pierre Bezukhov's character reflected philosophical contemplation through his intricate skating patterns and pondering nature.
2. Natasha Rostova's character was portrayed with spirited twirls and joyous laughter, capturing her vivaciousness.
3. Prince Andrei Bolkonsky's performance was reflective of his brooding nature through his melancholic gliding and contemplative demeanor.
4. Napoleon Bonaparte commanded attention with his grand entrance and authoritative presence on skates.
5. The roller rink's transformation enhanced the Tolstoyan atmosphere by recreating the Russian countryside with candlelit lanterns and snow-covered landscapes.

