

Name _____

School Days: Lessons We Need to Learn

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the slam poem?
 - A. Celebrating traditional education
 - B. Critiquing the education system
 - C. Memorization and regurgitation
 - D. GPA and grades

2. How does the poem describe the classroom environment?
 - A. As a place of creativity and freedom
 - B. As a sea of monotony and conformity
 - C. As a space for critical thinking and problem-solving
 - D. As a nurturing environment for passions

3. What is the poet's view on grades and GPA?
 - A. They accurately measure knowledge.
 - B. They should be abolished.
 - C. They are more important than anything else.
 - D. They need to be rethought.

4. According to the poem, what skills should be nurtured in the education system?
 - A. Memorization and regurgitation
 - B. Compassion and empathy
 - C. Grades and GPA
 - D. Monotony and conformity

5. What message does the poem convey about the uniqueness of each child?
 - A. Every child is the same.
 - B. Every child has the same talents and dreams.
 - C. Every child is unique and has their own talents and dreams.
 - D. Uniqueness is not important.

