

Name _____

Where Are You Froggy? - Short Answer Answer Key

1. Environments with plenty of water, like ponds, lakes, and marshes.
2. They often live high in trees or near the forest floor in warm, wet tropical areas.
3. It burrows into the sand to stay cool and moist, coming out at night to hunt.
4. It produces an "antifreeze" to survive freezing temperatures, stopping its heartbeat and breathing.
5. They are sensitive to pollution and climate change, making them useful for environmental studies.

