

Name _____

Paws and Whiskers: Why Cats Rule as Pets!

Short Answer Key

1. Cats are considered low-maintenance pets because they are independent, can entertain themselves, and don't require constant attention.
2. Cats keep themselves clean through grooming, and it's an advantage for their owners because they don't need to be bathed regularly, and they don't have a strong odor like wet dogs.
3. Some people seek out cats as therapy animals because the rhythmic purring of a content cat can have a calming effect and help reduce stress and anxiety.
4. Cats are suitable for apartment living because they don't need a large yard, and they are quiet, unlike dogs that may bark loudly.
5. One of the endearing qualities of cats mentioned in the article is their playful demeanor and quirky antics.

