

Name _____

Whispers of Goodbye

Short Answer Key

1. The speaker describes the memories of the loved one as echoing in their mind and being a source of comfort.
2. The rustling leaves and whispered winds symbolize the presence and influence of the loved one in nature.
3. "I'll carry you with me, deep inside" means that the memory and love of the departed will always be a part of the speaker's heart and soul.
4. The loss of the loved one makes the speaker feel sadness and emptiness, and it affects their daily life by causing tears and grief.
5. The poem conveys the message that even in the face of loss and grief, the memories and love of a departed loved one can provide solace and strength.

