

Name _____

Whispers of Regret

Short Answer Key

1. The speaker describes the past mistake as a "hidden box in the attic of the mind" to convey the idea that it is a secret burden that they carry within themselves.
2. The speaker likely feels uncomfortable or judgmental when facing the mirror, as it serves as a reflection of their own actions and choices.
3. The speaker's ultimate hope or desire regarding their past mistake is likely to find forgiveness and relief from the burden of guilt and remorse.
4. The poem conveys the idea that the speaker is burdened by their guilt and remorse through descriptions of the weight they feel and the haunting nature of their past mistake.
5. The poem explores the concept of forgiveness and redemption by highlighting the speaker's desire for forgiveness and their inner struggle with guilt.

