

Name _____

The Wild Chocolate Factory

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. The atmosphere in The Wild Chocolate Factory when Lily first entered was filled with giggles, excitement, and the sweet smell of chocolate. It was a magical and playful place.
2. The monkeys at the factory likely invited Lily to help them because they saw her curiosity and enthusiasm. They might have appreciated her interest in their work and her willingness to learn.
3. The Giggle Bars likely made people feel happy, joyful, and carefree, as they caused uncontrollable laughter. People probably experienced a sense of fun and delight when eating them.
4. The moral of the story could be that curiosity and kindness can lead to unexpected adventures and friendships, and that sharing joy and laughter with others is a wonderful thing.

