

Name _____

Skating to Stardom

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Sarah's determination is evident in her relentless practice, her ability to bounce back from setbacks, and her commitment to learning from the best. These qualities helped her stay focused and overcome challenges on her path to the championship.
2. Sarah's dream was important to her because figure skating was her passion, and she wanted to prove to herself and others that she could achieve greatness. She stayed motivated by reminding herself of her dream and the joy she found in skating.
3. As she stood on the podium with the gold medal, Sarah likely felt a mix of happiness, pride, and relief. She might have been overwhelmed with a sense of accomplishment and fulfillment.
4. Sarah's success at the Winter Wonderland Championship likely opened doors for her in the world of figure skating, potentially leading to opportunities for professional skating or coaching. It may also have boosted her confidence and determination in pursuing her dreams.

