

Name _____

The Time-Traveling Sled

Short Answer Key

1. The friends felt excited and filled with adventure when they discovered the magical sled.
2. The first historical event the friends witnessed and participated in was an 18th-century ice-skating race on a frozen river.
3. While scaling the snowy mountain, the friends faced the challenges of steep slopes, snowstorms, and physical endurance.
4. During their journey to the North Pole, the friends witnessed a group of explorers on an expedition, learning about the hardships and triumphs of polar exploration.
5. The friends' adventure changed their perception by deepening their appreciation for history, teaching them valuable life lessons, and inspiring a newfound love for winter.

