The Magical World of Wizards

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary. (e.g., I would choose the power to fly, and I would use it to explore new places and help people in need.)
2. Answers may vary. (e.g., I wake up in my enchanted castle, have breakfast with my talking owl friend, and then spend the day practicing spells and exploring the mystical forest around my home.)
3. Answers may vary. (e.g., If wizards didn't keep the magical world a secret, ordinary people might become scared or try to use magic in ways that could be dangerous.)
4. Answers may vary. (e.g., It's important for wizards to use their powers responsibly because they have the ability to bring joy and wonder to the world, but they also have the responsibility to avoid causing harm or chaos. For example, a responsible use of magic would be using it to heal someone who is sick.)
