

Name _____

The Fascinating World of Wolves

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What family do wolves belong to?
 - A. Canine family
 - B. Feline family
 - C. Rodent family
 - D. Reptile family

2. What is a wolf pack usually made up of?
 - A. A group of unrelated wolves
 - B. Only young wolves
 - C. Lone wolves from different areas
 - D. A breeding pair and their offspring

3. How do wolves communicate?
 - A. By using bright colors
 - B. By making howls, growls, and body language
 - C. By singing songs
 - D. By using sign language

4. What do wolves primarily eat?
 - A. Fruits and vegetables
 - B. Fish and seaweed
 - C. Meat from animals like deer and elk
 - D. Grass and leaves

5. Why are wolves important to ecosystems?
 - A. They plant trees.
 - B. They control populations of prey animals like deer.
 - C. They protect humans.
 - D. They create new habitats.

