

Name _____

How Do Wolves Communicate?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one purpose of a wolf's howl?
 - A. To scare away prey
 - B. To locate pack members
 - C. To confuse predators
 - D. To attract birds

2. What does it mean when a wolf lowers its head and tucks its tail?
 - A. It is feeling playful
 - B. It is showing submission
 - C. It is ready to hunt
 - D. It is marking territory

3. How do wolves mark their territory?
 - A. By howling loudly
 - B. By digging holes
 - C. By urinating on objects
 - D. By scratching trees

4. Why do wolves use silent communication during a hunt?
 - A. To avoid alerting their prey
 - B. To scare their prey
 - C. To practice teamwork
 - D. To communicate with other packs

5. How do wolves show affection within the pack?
 - A. By howling together
 - B. By scratching their ears
 - C. By standing tall with their tails raised
 - D. By licking each other's faces

