

Name _____

Do Wolves Form Relationships with Other Species?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is an example of mutualism involving wolves?
 - A. Wolves hunt with foxes.
 - B. Ravens alert wolves to prey and scavenge leftovers.
 - C. Ticks feed on wolves.
 - D. Wolves and deer share grazing areas.

2. How do wolves benefit plants indirectly?
 - A. By planting seeds
 - B. By hunting herbivores that overgraze
 - C. By spreading water
 - D. By eating harmful insects

3. What is a common parasite that affects wolves?
 - A. Ravens
 - B. Foxes
 - C. Elk
 - D. Ticks

4. What type of relationship occurs when scavengers follow wolves?
 - A. Mutualism
 - B. Parasitism
 - C. Commensalism
 - D. Competition

5. What do ravens do to help wolves?
 - A. Alert wolves to prey
 - B. Carry food to wolves
 - C. Hunt alongside wolves
 - D. Remove parasites from wolves

