

Name _____

Women's Power

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How did Abigail Williams gain power in The Crucible?
  - a) She became the leader of Salem.
  - b) She convinced the judges to stop the trials.
  - c) She married John Proctor.
  - d) She used the fear of witchcraft to control others.

2. Why was Elizabeth Proctor accused of witchcraft?
  - a) Abigail wanted to get rid of her.
  - b) She practiced magic in secret.
  - c) She tried to run away from Salem.
  - d) She was found with a spell book.

3. What happened when Mary Warren tried to tell the truth?
  - a) She became the leader of the court.
  - b) She was praised for her bravery.
  - c) She was threatened and forced to change her story.
  - d) She left Salem and started a new life.

4. How does The Crucible challenge traditional gender roles?
  - a) It shows that women can be strong and have power in different ways.
  - b) It proves that men are always more powerful than women.
  - c) It teaches that women should not speak in court.
  - d) It suggests that all women in Salem were witches.

5. What lesson does The Crucible teach about women's roles in society?
  - a) Women are always weak and powerless.
  - b) Women can be both strong and vulnerable in different ways.
  - c) Women should always follow the rules without question.
  - d) Women should avoid speaking in public.

