

Name _____

Discovering Earth's Wonders: Exploring Landforms

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What are landforms?
 - a. Human-made structures
 - b. Natural features found on the Earth's surface
 - c. Geological experiments
 - d. Underground formations

2. Which geological process is responsible for the formation of mountain ranges and earthquakes?
 - a. Erosion
 - b. Glaciation
 - c. Volcanism
 - d. Plate tectonics

3. How do glaciers contribute to shaping landforms?
 - a. By creating deserts
 - b. By depositing fertile soil
 - c. By carving deep valleys
 - d. By forming volcanoes

4. What role do landforms play in supporting ecosystems?
 - a. They have no impact on ecosystems.
 - b. They provide unique habitats for plant and animal species.
 - c. They create barriers that prevent species from moving.
 - d. They lead to the extinction of species.

5. Why do humans settle in various landform regions?
 - a. To avoid natural disasters
 - b. To escape extreme weather conditions
 - c. To take advantage of available resources and opportunities
 - d. To build underground homes

