Name _____

Discovering Earth's Wonders: Exploring Landforms

Short Answer

1. Describe one landform that is primarily shaped by the process of erosion.

2. How do plate tectonics contribute to the formation of mountains?

3. Explain the significance of landforms in recording the geological history of a region.

4. Provide an example of a valuable resource that can be found in specific landform regions.

5. Name a famous tourist destination that is a natural landform and describe why it attracts visitors.

© ReadingDuck.com