Name _____

Social Awareness: Understanding the World Around You

Short Answer

1. Give an example of how you can show social awareness in your everyday life.

2. Why is it important to respect differences among people?

3. Describe a situation where you might need to think before you act to show social awareness.

4. How can social awareness help create a happier and safer school environment?

5. Explain how social awareness can make the world a better place for everyone.

© ReadingDuck.com