

Name _____

Social Awareness: Understanding the World Around You

Short Answer Key

1. Answers may vary but should demonstrate an understanding of social awareness actions.
2. It is important to respect differences among people because it promotes inclusion, understanding, and a sense of belonging for everyone.
3. Answers may vary but should provide a situation where considering the impact on others is crucial.
4. Social awareness can create a safer school environment by preventing bullying and fostering a sense of support and unity among students.
5. Social awareness can make the world better by promoting kindness, empathy, and cooperation, leading to improved relationships and global harmony.

