

Name _____

The Magical World of Islands: How Are They Formed?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of island is formed by the growth of coral reefs around underwater volcanoes?
  - a. Volcanic island
  - b. Sandbar island
  - c. Coral atoll
  - d. Tectonic island

2. Which famous island chain is known for its ongoing volcanic activity and the creation of new islands?
  - a. Maldives
  - b. Bahamas
  - c. Hawaii
  - d. Fiji

3. How are sandbar islands, also known as barrier islands, primarily formed?
  - a. Volcanic eruptions
  - b. Tectonic plate movements
  - c. Growth of coral reefs
  - d. Sediment movement by ocean currents

4. What role do tectonic plate movements play in the formation of certain islands?
  - a. They create artificial islands.
  - b. They shape volcanic islands.
  - c. They produce sandbar islands.
  - d. They form coral atolls.

5. Which island is an example of an artificial island created by humans for urban development?
  - a. Iceland
  - b. Maldives
  - c. Palm Islands, Dubai
  - d. Hawaii

