

Name _____

The Enchanting World of Magic

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Possible Answer: Magicians keep their tricks secret to preserve the sense of wonder and mystery associated with magic. Revealing the secrets would spoil the magic for the audience.
2. Possible Answer: Magic performances can ignite people's sense of wonder and imagination by presenting the impossible as possible. They encourage audiences to suspend disbelief and embrace the magical possibilities of the world.
3. Possible Answer: Answers may vary. Example: I would love to perform a levitation trick because it would make people believe in the magic of defying gravity and create a sense of wonder.
4. Possible Answer: Learning about the secrets behind magic tricks might enhance the enjoyment of magic shows by allowing the audience to appreciate the skill, creativity, and ingenuity behind each illusion, making the experience even more magical.

