

Name _____

Young Voices Rising: A Sonnet of Change

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the Sonnet poem "Young Voices Rising: A Sonnet of Change"?

- a) The power of young voices and activism
- b) The importance of silence
- c) The beauty of nature
- d) The value of old traditions

2. What do young hearts in the poem do to make a change?

- a) They stay quiet
- b) They march and shout for what is right
- c) They hide in the dark
- d) They give up easily

3. How are young voices described in the poem?

- a) Weak and timid
- b) Like a beacon in the dark
- c) Uninspiring
- d) Ineffective

4. What do the young activists fight for in the poem?

- a) Inequality and injustice
- b) Staying the same
- c) Isolation
- d) Keeping traditions alive

5. What does the poem say about the determination of young voices?

- a) They easily give up
- b) Their energy is limited
- c) They take the lead with determination
- d) They are often quiet

