The Bill of Rights: Your Rights, Your Guarantees!

Short Answer Key

1. The Second Amendment guarantees the right to bear arms.
2. The Fifth Amendment protects individuals by requiring indictment by a grand jury, preventing double jeopardy, allowing the right to remain silent, ensuring due process, and protecting against the taking of private property without just compensation.
3. The Sixth Amendment ensures the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, the right to be informed of the accusation, the right to confront witnesses, and the right to have legal counsel.
4. The Tenth Amendment emphasizes that powers not granted to the federal government by the Constitution are reserved for the states or the people.
5. The Ninth Amendment clarifies that there are other rights retained by the people that are not specifically mentioned in the Constitution.
