

Name _____

Youth Power: Shaping a Brighter Future

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What inspired Amina to take action against global poverty?
 - a) She wanted to earn money for herself.
 - b) She saw the challenges her village faced.
 - c) Her parents forced her to get involved.
 - d) Her teacher asked her to help.

2. Why are young people effective in fighting global poverty?
 - a) They lack passion and idealism.
 - b) They are not connected to technology.
 - c) They bring creativity and innovation.
 - d) They focus on short-term solutions.

3. How did Amina and her friends raise funds for clean water in their village?
 - a) They borrowed money from the government.
 - b) They organized a bake sale.
 - c) They dug a well themselves.
 - d) They asked their parents for money.

4. What is one advantage of youth involvement in combating global poverty mentioned in the essay?
 - a) They only focus on the present.
 - b) They lack access to information.
 - c) They discourage others from getting involved.
 - d) They inspire others to take action.

5. What does the essay suggest about the long-term impact of youth involvement in poverty alleviation?
 - a) It has no impact on the future.
 - b) It is a short-term solution.
 - c) It shapes a world with reduced poverty in the future.
 - d) It leads to more poverty.

