

Name _____

Youth Power: Shaping a Brighter Future

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Can you provide an example from the essay of how Amina and her friends demonstrated determination and perseverance in their efforts to combat poverty?
2. Explain how technology and connectivity benefit young activists in their fight against global poverty, using information from the essay.
3. In your own words, describe the role of passion and idealism in motivating young people to take action against global poverty, as mentioned in the essay.
4. Why is it important for youth to bring creativity and innovation when addressing global poverty, according to the essay?

