

Name _____

Talking in Stripes: How Zebras Communicate

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What sound do zebras make to warn the herd about predators?
 - A. A hee-haw
 - B. A bark
 - C. A roar
 - D. A growl

2. What do pinned-back ears on a zebra mean?
 - A. The zebra is calm.
 - B. The zebra is sleepy.
 - C. The zebra is curious.
 - D. The zebra is upset or threatened.

3. How do zebra stripes help them?
 - A. They make it hard for predators to focus on one zebra.
 - B. They help zebras blend in with trees
 - C. They keep the zebras cool.
 - D. They help zebras run faster.

4. What does grooming between zebras show?
 - A. Competition
 - B. Affection and trust
 - C. Dominance
 - D. Nervousness

5. How do zebra mothers and foals stay close?
 - A. They use loud barks.
 - B. They flick their tails.
 - C. They use softer sounds like nuzzles and nickers.
 - D. They run in opposite directions.

