

Name _____

The Role of Zebras in the Ecosystem

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What do zebras eat that helps keep grasslands balanced?
 - A. Grass
 - B. Insects
 - C. Leaves
 - D. Bark

2. How do zebras help plants grow in different areas?
 - A. By digging holes
 - B. By spreading seeds through their fur and droppings
 - C. By watering them
 - D. By planting seeds themselves

3. Why are zebras important to predators?
 - A. They scare predators away.
 - B. They teach predators how to hunt.
 - C. They are a food source for predators.
 - D. They protect predators from harm.

4. What is one way zebras control insect populations?
 - A. By eating insects
 - B. By disturbing the soil as they graze
 - C. By covering insects with grass
 - D. By chasing insects away

5. How does protecting zebras help the ecosystem?
 - A. It prevents grass from growing too tall.
 - B. It stops predators from hunting.
 - C. It keeps the savanna dry.
 - D. It ensures other species that depend on them can survive.

