Funny Houses

In a friendly neighborhood, there were three funny houses.

The first house, shaped like a giant shoe, belonged to Mrs. Cobbler. The second house was a colorful mushroom where Mr. Mushroom lived. And the third house looked like a big, smiling pineapple, which was home to the Pineapple family.

Every day, they would have a race to see who could get to the mailboxes first. Mrs. Cobbler's shoe always got stuck, Mr. Mushroom's mushroom would wobble, and the Pineapple family would roll downhill. It was a hilarious race where everyone always ended up laughing!
