

Name _____

The Wacky Invention Contest

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. Benny wanted to participate in the Wacky Invention Contest because he dreamed of winning, and he believed his invention could impress the judges and the town. He was motivated by his passion for inventing.
2. The "Butterfly-Powered Umbrella" was one of the wacky inventions showcased in the contest. It would be useful in everyday life because it could provide shelter from the rain while giving people a fun and unique ride.
3. Yes, wacky inventions can be helpful because they often bring creativity and innovation to solve everyday problems in unique ways. For example, Benny's Auto-Bed Maker 3000 made the task of bed-making easier and more fun.
4. After winning the contest, Benny's life might have changed as he became known as a successful inventor in Widgetville. He might have proudly displayed his trophy and continued inventing even more wacky creations.

