

Name _____

The Day the Playground Came to Life

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Answers may vary but should reflect the excitement and surprise of the children.
2. The seesaw had a mischievous personality, and it lifted one child high into the air and sent another flying.
3. The basketball hoop dunked the basketballs to make the game more fun.
4. The children and their teacher played and laughed with the lively playground all day long.
5. The playground returned to its usual stillness when the sun began to set.

