

Name _____

Public vs. Private Schools: Exploring the Differences in Education

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is a key characteristic of public schools?
 - a) Selectivity in student admissions
 - b) Tuition fees paid by students' families
 - c) Government funding and accessibility to all students in a specific district
 - d) Curriculum flexibility

2. How are public schools funded?
 - a) Through tuition fees
 - b) Through endowments and donations
 - c) Primarily through taxes paid by residents in the district
 - d) Through grants from private organizations

3. What is one advantage of private schools having smaller class sizes?
 - a) Lower tuition fees
 - b) Less diversity among students
 - c) More individualized attention for students
 - d) Limited extracurricular activities

4. What is a key difference in teacher qualifications between public and private schools?
 - a) Public school teachers are required to have state-certified teaching credentials, while private school teachers are not.
 - b) Private school teachers are required to have state-certified teaching credentials, while public school teachers are not.
 - c) Both public and private school teachers have the same qualifications.
 - d) Public school teachers only need a high school diploma to teach.

5. What do public and private schools have in common regarding extracurricular activities?
 - a) Public schools offer more specialized programs.
 - b) Private schools have larger class sizes for extracurricular activities.
 - c) Both offer extracurricular activities, but the availability and structure may differ.
 - d) Private schools do not offer any extracurricular activities.

