

Name _____

The Silly Adventures of Professor Giggles

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Professor Giggles was different from ordinary professors because he had a special talent for making people laugh, and he believed that laughter was the best way to learn.
2. Answers may vary. Possible response: One of the silly inventions in Professor Giggles's laughter laboratory was a giant whoopee cushion that covered the entire floor of his living room.
3. Answers may vary. Possible response: The children from Chuckleville Elementary School felt happy and excited after trying out the experiments and inventions in Professor Giggles's laughter laboratory.
4. Answers may vary. Possible response: The children looked forward to going to school every day after visiting Professor Giggles because they realized that learning could be fun, just like their visit to the laughter laboratory.
5. Chuckleville became known as the happiest town in the world after Professor Giggles's adventures.

