

Name _____

Education Beyond Borders: How Kids in Remote Areas Access Learning

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What are satellite schools?
 - a) Schools located in urban areas
 - b) Schools connected to larger educational institutions in remote areas
 - c) Schools that use satellite technology for communication
 - d) Schools in space

2. What is the purpose of mobile classrooms in remote areas?
 - a) To provide transportation to students
 - b) To deliver educational materials and resources to remote locations
 - c) To offer extracurricular activities
 - d) To serve as community centers

3. What are community learning centers, and who typically runs them?
 - a) Centers for adults to learn new skills
 - b) Hubs for education in remote areas, often run by local volunteers or community leaders
 - c) Centers for online learning
 - d) Private tutoring centers

4. How has the internet changed education for remote learners?
 - a) It has eliminated the need for teachers.
 - b) It has made education more expensive.
 - c) It allows access to online courses, educational videos, and digital textbooks.
 - d) It is not accessible in remote areas.

5. What is a challenge faced in remote education?
 - a) Limited access to technology
 - b) Abundance of qualified teachers
 - c) Overwhelming cultural relevance in educational materials
 - d) Excessive teacher-student interaction

