

Name _____

The Secret Agent Siblings

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. Lily and Liam likely called themselves "The Secret Agent Siblings" because they enjoyed solving mysteries and helping others. They became secret agents to make their everyday life more exciting and to use their skills for good.
2. Lily and Liam possess qualities such as curiosity, resourcefulness, and a strong sense of justice, which make them good secret agents. They also have spy gadgets and the ability to work together as a team, as shown in the story.
3. Lily and Liam used teamwork by coordinating their actions and skills to solve the mystery. While Lily distracted Mr. Whiskers, Liam investigated the suspicious cat. Their cooperation and communication helped them achieve their goal.
4. The story does not describe what the "World's Silliest Hat" looked like, so it's up to the reader's imagination. Whiskers Jr. might have been curious about the hat's unusual design or wanted to be playful by trying it on.

