Tommy's Toy Trucks

In a colorful playroom, Tommy had a collection of toy trucks. One day, his toy trucks decided to have a race. The firetruck revved its engine, the dump truck loaded up with blocks, and the ice cream truck played a catchy tune.

But when the race started, the ice cream truck couldn't resist stopping to serve ice cream to everyone, including the finish line! The other trucks laughed and declared the ice cream truck the winner for being the tastiest!
