Sebastian the Supersonic Turtle

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. Sebastian challenged his friends to a race because he wanted to show them how fast he was and have some fun.
2. Sebastian learned that speed isn't everything and that it's important to be kind and considerate of others. This was important because it helped him make a new friend in Stanley the snail.
3. The other animals were surprised but accepted the challenge, even though they knew Sebastian was fast.
4. Sebastian stopped during the race when he saw Stanley the snail in the middle of the pond. He gave Stanley a chance to join the race and even gave him a head start.
5. The story ended with Stanley winning the race, and Sebastian learned to take things slow and enjoy the company of friends. The lesson is that sometimes it's important to be kind and patient, and that speed isn't the only thing that matters.
